

A Grandma-Inspired Love for Music Goes a Long Way Aleks Di Roma Gives Back to the Community - a Charitable Concert for Seniors

(Chicago, IL - for immediate release) -- A charitable concert was recently performed by Aleksandr Romanenko to an audience of over hundred seniors at Illinois's largest adult day care center, Forever Young. Aleksandr Romanenko, also known as guitarist Aleks Di Roma, entertained over a hundred Eastern European seniors with his original songs and compositions as well as all-time favorite hits of Russian songs, with the entire audience cheerfully singing along.

As the largest adult day care center in Illinois, Forever Young receives over 800 visitors at its centers in Lincolnwood and Wheeling. "The performance was outstanding!," says Yelena Gera, Activities Director of Forever Young. "Our dream has always been to create a special place where seniors of all ages can engage in active discussions, participate in workshops and language studies, be exposed to international music and arts, and most importantly, make new friends! Aleksandr's performance was touching in so many ways, from laughter to tears - he is a true professional and memories of his performance will stay with us for a long time!"

Since early childhood, Aleksandr has been exploring his life-long passion for music. In 2010, he released a debut album of original works entitled Horizon of Harmony, receiving international acclaim and was featured on radio and internet playlists across the US, South America, Asia, and Europe. Originally from Ukraine, Aleks has picked up his first guitar at the age of seven and has never put it down since, studying with extraordinary guitarists such as Irene Yanovskaya, Michele Iaccarino, Manuel Lozano Gomez, and Alfredo Mesa. He is a passionate music producer, dynamic music instructor, and a vibrant performing artist, featured in numerous international music festivals, concerts, productions, recording projects, and workshops.

In 2011, Aleks co-founded Terra Sounds School of Music & Arts, located in Glenview, IL. "My grandmother used to sing to me all the time when I was a young kid, and she was one of the first people who inspired me to love music" says Romanenko. "Ever since, sharing the love of music has become a passion of mine with kids and seniors alike. Music is for everyone."

Forever Young offers a planned program of activities designed to promote well-being through socialization within a safe, supportive and cheerful environment monitored by social workers and health professionals. The performance was hosted at Forever Young's Lincolnwood center, located at 6700 Lincoln Ave., Lincolnwood, IL 60712.

For more information on concerts, lessons and workshops offered by Terra Sounds, visit terrasounds.com or call 847.737.1850.

About Terra Sounds School of Music & Arts

Terra Sounds is a new concept of dynamic education in music and creative arts for kids, teens, and adults. The school's faculty consists of some of the most talented musicians and artists in the Chicagoland area. From private lessons in music, arts, and languages to multi-disciplinary group classes, jam sessions, and recording services, the Terra Sounds experience inspires students of all levels to realize their full potential. From its inception, Terra Sounds' mission has been to establish a community that will foster creativity in multiple forms and encourage the passion for the arts in students of all ages.

Media Contact:

Aleks Romanenko
(847) 737-1850
aleks@terrasounds.com
<http://www.terrasounds.com/>
924 Waukegan Rd, Glenview, IL

###